

Notice of Immediate Exam Suspension Due to COVID-19

PLEASE READ CAREFULLY – IMPACTS YOUR EXAMS

Emailed August 23, 2020

Emailed to all Exam Applicants residing in the Prairie Mountain Health Region for exams scheduled until September 3, 2020 with the ICM office

The Insurance Council of Manitoba continues to monitor and assess developments with COVID-19. The health and safety of the public, our licensees, exam applicants, and our staff are our priority.

Due to increased restrictions by the Provincial Government regarding COVID-19 cases in the Prairie Mountain Health Region, which includes Brandon and the Westman area, examinations for all exam applicants residing in this region – including your exams – are unfortunately suspended effective immediately until further notice.

As information is available from the Provincial Health Authorities concerning COVID-19 in the Prairie Mountain Health Region over the next while, a decision will be made as to when we can resume examinations to those residing in this region. We ask for everyone's patience while we await further developments.
